

SAVE THE DATE! April 5, 2008

Project Clean Stream, an annual stream and shoreline clean-up, takes place Saturday, April 5, 2008, 9am to Noon. Site range across Central Maryland and the Eastern Shore. Volunteers are needed to lead clean-ups as Site Captains and to help as general crew.

Gloves, bags, first aid supplies, and site sign provided by the Alliance for the Chesapeake Bay during Site Captain trainings prior to clean-up date. Curbside pick-up of trash bags, dumpsters, or landfill fee waiver available for most sites (varies by county).

* In 2007, over 2,500 volunteers turned out at more than 100 clean-up sites!

Sponsored by the Chesapeake Bay Trust
