Patricia Jessamy Welcomes New Girl Scouts

Baltimore—On Saturday, November 10th approximately 75 girls from all over Baltimore City will participate in the Baltimore City Girl Scout Investiture Ceremony. The ceremony, held at St. Ambrose Catholic Church at 4504 Park Heights Avenue from 2:00 p.m. to 3:30 p.m, will welcome new Girl Scouts, girls or adults, into the Girl Scout family for the first time. Additionally, returning Girl Scouts and adult members have the opportunity to rededicate themselves to the mission of Girl Scouts: building girls of courage, confidence, and character, who make the world a better place.

Patricia Jessamy, Baltimore City State’s Attorney, will be the guest speaker for the event. As the first woman to serve as Baltimore City State’s Attorney, her words and experiences are sure to inspire and motivate her young audience. The Honorable Joan Pratt, Baltimore City Comptroller; Baltimore City Council President Stephanie Rawlings-Blake; and a representative from Mayor Sheila Dixon’s office are also expected to stop by during the ceremony. Contact Diane Moore-Simon, Event Coordinator, at (410) 318-9073 for more information.
