GIRL SCOUTS' HOST THE GREENEST, TASTIEST EVENT OF THE YEAR

Baltimore, October 30—Girl Scouts of Central Maryland's (GSCM) Green Carpet Event, which takes place Thursday, November 13 from 6p-8:30p at the Renaissance Harborplace Hotel, promises to be the biggest, greenest, tastiest event of the year! The top pre-order cookie sellers from Baltimore City and the five surrounding counties will be celebrated with awards and a program that includes special performances and spectacular food accented with Girl Scout Cookies. Local chefs—Bryan Montz, Avanti Restaurant; Adam Bowman, Wegman's Food Market; Rev. Edward Robinson, Agape House and our celebrity chefs: Nancy Longo, Pierpoint Restaurant; Rodney Henry, Dangerously Delicious Pies, and the ACE of Cakes--Duff Goldman, Charm City Cakes, will be among those making delectable dishes for all to enjoy. Also joining the celebrity list this year and adding her own sparkle to the evening will be Mrs. Maryland, Adrienne Watson Carver, who will assist in crowning the 2008-2009 Cookie Diva. The event is open to all; for ticket information visit the Girl Scout website: www.gscm.org or call Connie Adams on 410.358.9711, ext. 238.

The evening will be a spectacular celebration of girl entrepreneurship. "Many professional women credit their current success to their early Girl Scout cookie sales experiences," noted GSCM CEO Traci A. Barnett, M.B.A. "Most people are amazed that the Cookie Sale program activity really does provide girls with business basics—goal setting, team building, money management and customer service," she added. "We are pleased to have the opportunity to recognize girls who may very well be tomorrow's women business leaders."
