Girl Scout Leaders Among Top 100 Women

Baltimore—Girl Scouts of Central Maryland’s Chief Executive Officer, Traci A. Barnett, M.B.A. and Chair of the GSCM Board of Directors, Donna L. Reihl, Ph.D. have been named by the Daily Record as among Baltimore City’s Top 100 Women. This is Ms. Barnett’s first selection into this exclusive group of professional business women. Donna L. Reihl, Ph.D. and Elise N. Morris, also a member of the Girl Scouts’ Board of Directors will be inducted into the Circle of Excellence—which signifies that they have been recognized as Top 100 Women for three years. Suzanne Thompson, another member of the GSCM Board of Directors, has also been recognized as a Top 100 woman for her professional accomplishments.

Donna L. Reihl, Ph.D. is Dean of Community Education for the Community College of Baltimore County, Elise N. Morris is a partner with Whiteford, Taylor & Preston, L.L.P. and Suzanne Thompson is a partner with Heritage Financial Consultants, LLC. Traci A. Barnett, M.B.A. has been Chief Executive Officer of Girl Scouts of Central Maryland since 2002 overseeing an operating budget of $5.3 million which provides a myriad of leadership development activities and opportunities for 30,000 girls in central Maryland. All four ladies, along with the other Top 100 Women, will be honored on May 12 at the Meyerhoff Symphony Hall.
