Six Cookie Savvy Girl Scouts Star on the Green Carpet Carpet

Baltimore— On Thursday, November 12, 2009, six industrious Girl Scouts exited their limousines and were escorted onto the Green Carpet where paparazzi and applause awaited their arrival. The occasion? Girl Scouts of Central Maryland's 3rd annual Green Carpet Event—an event that brings local chefs' eclectic cuisine, celebrities, Girl Scout stars, and Girl Scout cookies –together to celebrate girls' marketing accomplishments during the first phase of the annual Cookie Program Activity. This year Alexandra Coclough (Anne Arundel County), Hailey Ludwig (Baltimore City), Sara Franks (Baltimore County), Madelyn Bowers (Carroll County), Laniya Bullie (Harford County) and Sarah Skelton (Howard County) each received plaques for their outstanding cookie sales in the first phase of the cookie program.

The event was held at Port Discovery Children's Museum, a venue that offered plenty of fun for both adults and children. Among the celebrities in attendance were: Miss Maryland (Nicole Ortiz), who showed her skill on the Port Discovery zip line; Mrs. Maryland Galaxy, LaQuisha Hall; Mrs. Maryland International, Adrienne Watson Carver; the Orioles bird and Reese, the Hershey Park mascot. All guests dined on entrees made by local chefs: Jason Ambrose (Salt Tavern); Daniel Elardo (Zeiffert & Gold Catering); Michael Gettier (Antrim 1844); Nancy Longo (Pierpoint Restaurant); Jaime Luna (Mari Luna); William McKinley (McCormick and Schmick's Seafood); Bryan Montz (Chef Montz Executive Catering); Daryl Rodriguez (Truffles Catering); Rev. Edward G. Robinson (Agape House Catering) and Robert W. Seelig (Santonis Restaurant), that included Black Sole Mole, Girl Scout Magic Bars, Lemon Chalet Shrimp Canapes and Tagalongs Torte. Also adding glamour and glitz to the evening were limousine companies: A Touch of Elegance, Z Best Limousine, The Limo Lady, Hire Quality Limousines, A Platinum Plus Limousines, Inc. and Watkins Limousines, that transported each of the Girl Scout winners to the event. The evening was filled with fun, excitement, celebration, celebrity and outstanding food—all the ingredients for a perfectly wonderful affair.
