Girl Scout Kelly Schwab Gets Inside Look at Practicing Law as a Distinguished Woman Shadow

Baltimore—Ambassador Girl Scout Kelly Schwab was selected as a 2010 Distinguished Woman Shadow. In this role Kelly had the opportunity to spend the day with Distinguished Woman Honoree, Sandra P. Gohn, Esq., a partner at DLA Piper US LLP, as her mentee. In the process, she got an inside look at how lawyers—and Ms. Gohn in particular—spend their work day. This opportunity is part of Girl Scouts of Central Maryland’s annual Distinguished Women’s Award reception, which honors local Maryland women for their exemplary professional and civic accomplishments. At the Award’s reception, which takes place Thursday, April 29, 2010, at the Baltimore Country Club, Kelly, as well as four other Girl Scout Shadows, will give a speech describing their day and the aspects that were most important to them. Tickets to the event are $75; proceeds benefit Girl Scouts of Central Maryland’s outreach programs. To purchase tickets contact Maria Johnson, Vice President, Advancement at 410.358.9711.

Kelly has been involved in Girl Scouting for 11 years and has earned her Girl Scout Silver Award. She is currently working to earn the highest award in Girl Scouting--the Girl Scout Gold Award. Kelly served as a greeter at last year’s Distinguished Award reception, “It convinced me how valuable this experience could be,” she said. “This is an opportunity to gain knowledge about how leadership and hard work can lead to a successful career,” she added.

Carolyn McGuire-Frenkil, President Center City, Inc.; Nancy Longo, Executive Chef and Owner Pierpoint Restaurant & Catering; Gwendolyn D. Skillern, Senior Vice President & General Auditor for Carefirst BlueCross BlueShield and Ellen H. Yankellow, Pharm.D, President & CEO of Correct RX Pharmacy Services, Inc. will also be honored as Distinguished Women.
