Juliette Gordon Low

(from www.gsusa.org)

Juliette Gordon Low, founder of Girl Scouts of the USA, was born Juliette Magill Kinzie Gordon on October 31, 1860, in Savannah, Georgia. “Daisy,” as she was affectionately called by family and friends, was the second of six children of William Washington Gordon and Eleanor Kinzie Gordon.

Family members on her father’s side were early settlers in Georgia, and her mother’s family played an important role in the founding of Chicago, Illinois. Daisy Gordon spent a happy childhood in her large Savannah home, which was purchased and restored by Girl Scouts of the USA in 1953 and designated a registered National Historic Landmark in 1965.

Daisy developed what was to become a lifetime interest in the arts. She wrote poems, sketched, wrote and acted in plays and later became a skilled painter and sculptor. She had many pets throughout her life and was particularly fond of exotic birds, Georgia mockingbirds and dogs. Daisy was also known for her great sense of humor.

Early Adulthood

In her teens, Daisy attended boarding school at Virginia Female Institute (now Stuart Hall School) in Staunton, Va., and later attended Mesdemoiselles Charbonniers, a French finishing school in New York City. Following her school years, Juliette Gordon traveled extensively in the United States and Europe.

On December 21, 1886, Juliette married William Mackay Low, a wealthy Englishman, at Christ Church in Savannah, Georgia. Although the couple moved to England, Juliette continued her travels and divided her time between the British Isles and America.

Before her marriage, Juliette had suffered from chronic ear infections. She had lost most of her hearing in one ear because of improper treatment. At her wedding, when she was 26, she lost hearing in her other ear after a grain of good-luck rice thrown at the event lodged in her ear, puncturing the eardrum and resulting in an infection and total loss of hearing in that ear.

Girl Scout Life

In 1911, Juliette met Sir Robert Baden-Powell, founder of the Boy Scouts and Girl Guides, and became interested in the new youth movement. Afterwards, she channeled all her considerable energies into the fledgling movement.

Less than a year later, she returned to the United States and made her historic telephone call to a friend (a distant cousin), saying, “I’ve got something for the girls of Savannah, all of America and all the world, and we’re going to start it tonight!” On March 12, 1912, Juliette Low gathered 18 girls to register the first troop of American Girl Guides. Margaret “Daisy Doots” Gordon, her niece and namesake, was the first registered member. The name of the organization was changed to Girl Scouts the following year.

In developing the Girl Scout movement in the United States, Juliette brought girls of all backgrounds into the out-of-doors, giving them the opportunity to develop self-reliance and resourcefulness. She encouraged girls to prepare not only for traditional homemaking, but also for possible future roles as professional women—in the arts, sciences and business—and for active citizenship outside the home. Girl Scouting welcomed girls with disabilities at a time when they were excluded from many other activities. This idea seemed quite natural to Juliette, who never let deafness, back problems or cancer keep her from full participation in life.

From the original 18 girls, Girl Scouting has grown to 3.7 million members. Girl Scouts is the largest educational organization for girls in the world and has influenced the more than 50 million girls, women and men who have belonged to it.

Juliette Gordon Low accumulated admirers...

...and friends of all ages, nationalities and walks of life. By maintaining contact with overseas Girl Guides and Girl

Scouts during World War I, she helped lay the foundation for the World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts. After her death from breast cancer in 1927, her friends honored her by establishing the Juliette Low World Friendship Fund, which finances international projects for Girl Scouts and Girl Guides around the world.

Juliette Gordon Low died at her Savannah, Georgia, home on Lafayette Square January 17, 1927. She is buried at Laurel Grove Cemetery in Savannah.

A Great Opportunity for Girl Scout Cadettes, Seniors & Ambassadors

Each year, GSCM honors five outstanding women at the Distinguished Women's Award Reception. Through the

"I have had the honor and privilege to shadow Ms. Mary Louise Preis, a former Maryland State Delegate and Regional Director, Community Relations for CitiGroup. Ms. Preis gave me advice about how to achieve my goals and ways I can realize my own potential. She helped me to understand that I don't have to know what I want to do now for the rest of my life, but if I utilize my strengths I can accomplish anything."

- Melissa Williams,
2008 Shadow Girl

Distinguished Women's shadow opportunity, we have high school Girl Scouts the opportunity to get an up-close view of women's leadership.

As a Distinguished Women's "shadow," girls spend the day with one of our Honorees and see first-hand how she manages her time, staff and responsibilities. The experience has proven to be rewarding for both the Girl Scout Shadow and the Honorees and we strongly encourage girls to apply for this once-in-a-lifetime opportunity.

The Distinguished Women's Award Reception will be held Thursday, April 29, 2010, 5:00 to 8:30 p.m. at the Baltimore Country Club in Roland Park. The 2010 Distinguished Women Honorees will be announced soon.

Applications are available on the GSCM website. All entries must be postmarked by Tuesday, January 19, 2010. Interviews will be conducted January 30, 2010 between 8:30 a.m. and 12:30 p.m. at GSCM headquarters.

Volunteers Wanted

We are looking for a few good volunteers.

We are looking for adults age 18+ and Program Aides (high school age girls) to be counselors for our day camps at Camp Woodlands (June 28-July 2, 2010), in Annapolis, and Oregon Ridge, in Baltimore County (July 19-23, 2010).

This is a great opportunity to have fun, learn new things, work with girls or adults and make new friends. Many of our adult volunteers take time off from their full-time jobs to come to camp. Parents do not have to be Girl Scout Leaders to help at our Council-Directed Day Camps.

Want to spend quality time with your daughter? All volunteers who help at Camp Woodlands or Oregon Ridge will be eligible to have one daughter attend camp for free. Responsibilities include being on the committee to develop the camp program.

Interested? Contact Chris Garrett at cgarrett@gscm.org or by telephone 410.358.9711, x 260 or via cell at 410.949.6044.

Volunteers Wanted

Want a chance to volunteer with very little time commitment? Here's your chance: Girl Scouts of Central Maryland is beginning auction plans for the 30th Annual Distinguished Women's Awards Reception and we need your help. One of the biggest parts of our fundraising efforts for this event are the silent and live auctions. Starting this year we will be creating an auction sub-committee comprised of our Development Coordinator, Meghan Cornely, and interested volunteers. We would really like a representative from each county the Council supports and Baltimore City that can help with soliciting for auction items, picking up items from various locations, being an "auction watcher" the night of the event, and generally helping with the compilation of all items as they come in. The committee will meet two times before the event to keep up to date with logistics and then individually as needed.

Interested? Contact Meghan Cornely at 410.598.3711 or mcornely@gscm.org.

Adult Learning

Here is a listing of courses available in February. The entire schedule of spring courses will be listed on our website later this month. Please use form 08-1466 to register for any adult learning courses. The form is available on our website or from the Volunteer Resource Center. Registrations should be submitted two weeks prior to the course date. If you have to cancel out of a course, please be sure to notify us as soon as possible so that anyone on a waiting list can be offered the spot. To receive the quickest confirmation and save on postage, please be sure to provide an e-mail address.

Harvest for the Hungry

This year we are pleased to announce plans for another coordinated food collection effort with the Baltimore Area Boy Scout Council. Troop leaders should contact your Service Unit Manager/ Representative with the neighborhood streets that the troop wishes to canvass.

The Boy Scouts will be mapping the coordinated bag distribution to ensure that every central Maryland household receives a food bag. Collection bags will be available from GSCM in January.

Your troop can help by distributing bags door to door between February 27 and March 6, assist with bag collection on March 6 and help take food to the Maryland Food Bank or local food banks.

For additional information, please contact Sherry Dowdell at sdowdell@gscm.org or at 410.358.9711, x245. Information and forms can also be located on the GSCM website at www.gscm.org.

Around the World on Thinking Day

When: Saturday, February 20, 2010
11 a.m. – 3 p.m.

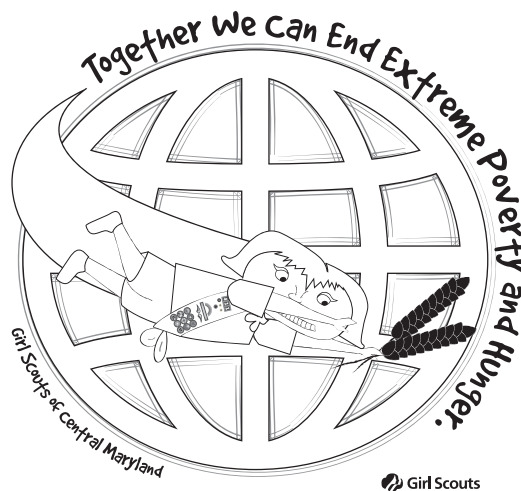

Where: Seton Keough High School,
Baltimore

In celebration of World Thinking Day participants will be learning about different cultures in a fun and inclusive way to discover, connect, and take action. At the event you will meet international guests, watch performances and taste foods from various countries like Peru, the Phillipines, Germany and others.

We will also learn how together with organizations like the Maryland Food Bank and the Garden Federation of Maryland, we can end extreme poverty and hunger. During the event we will be collecting cans of food to be donated to the Maryland Food Bank. The troop that brings the most donations will receive a certificate for the Harvest for the Hungry program at the closing ceremony.

We invite 1st and 2nd generation immigrants interested in representing their country through the arts (i.e. cooking, dancing, crafts, singing) or by sharing their traditional customs.

Questions? Ask Frances Torres at: ftorres@gscm.org or 410.358.9711 ext 265.

SCAVENGER HUNT AT THE MARYLAND HORSE WORLD EXPO

Explore the wonderful world of horses at the Maryland Horse World EXPO, January 21-24, 2010, inside the heated Maryland State Fair Grounds in Timonium, MD. The EXPO features top quality seminars and clinics, mounted demonstrations, Stallion Avenue, world class shopping, and new this year the GIRL SCOUT SCAVENGER HUNT.

Learn all about horses via our special informational Scavenger Hunt just for Girl Scouts on any one of the days the EXPO is open. Registered Girl Scouts may participate either with their troop or attend individually with a responsible accompanying adult. Troop leaders and accompanying adults must take care to follow all Safety-Wise and GSCM policies for activities outside the usual meeting place. No pre-registration. Purchase your EXPO tickets online in advance or at the door of either buildings that day. Come to the Girl Scout Booth, number 2204, in the Exhibition Hall to get your Scavenger Hunt Sheet and detailed instructions. The Scavenger Hunt consists of questions all about horses. The answers will be found in the booths of participating vendors and clinicians. Return your completed Scavenger Hunt

Sheet to the Girl Scout booth to receive your free special EXPO Patch.

For more detailed information about the Scavenger Hunt visit our website www.gscm.org. You can link from there to the Maryland Horse World EXPO web site for more on all the EXPO has to offer <http://horseworldexpo.com/MDmain.htm>

Adults who would like to volunteer in the Girl Scout booth, please contact Jacque Cowan, Membership Specialist, x214 / jcowan@gscm.org. Horse knowledge and experience not needed – just your Girl Scout smiles! We will be promoting our summer camp, Operation US Thin Mint, Girl Scout membership and volunteer opportunities.

Girls Go Techbridge Programs-in-a-Box Leader Training

This year GSCM partnered with Techbridge, a program of Chabot Space and Science Center, to bring science programs-in-a-box for girls in 5th – 8th grade. The programs include: Make It Green – a module about green design and lessening the impact on the environment; Design Time – a module about the engineering design process for catapults, purses, and a bubble solution; Power It Up – a module about electronics and circuitry through hands-on investigations including creating a LED butterfly and soldering a Blinky Robot.

We are offering trainings for troop leaders, which includes participating in hands-on projects and career exploration activities. Please use the training registration form (08-1466) to register. Trainings will be held at the Girl Scout Service Center, 4806 Seton Drive, Baltimore, 7- 9 p.m.

SAFETY - WISE

TIPS AND REMINDERS

Whether you are a new or experienced leader, Safety-Wise is a reference that will help ensure that troop activities meet basic safety guidelines and Program Standards established by GSUSA. Here are some steps to help guide you in using the resource.

Winter is here and that means ice skating, skiing, sledding, snowboarding, snowshoeing, and the list goes on. When snow hits, these activities top the list for many of our girls. With proper planning and supervision they can definitely make for a fun adventure. Please be sure to review Safety-Wise, pages 108-111, for the check point activity lists for these winter adventures. Ice skating checkpoints can be found on pages 104 -105. Proper clothing and proper instructions are musts for these cold weather activities. To insure the best experience, consult the experts to aid in your planning. Wishing your troop a safe and fun-filled winter.

Update

SHARE HER ANNUAL REAL EXPENSES

The total of Girl Scout family donations to SHARE, through the month of December, is $98,435—which makes for a very Happy New Year! This total indicates a 7% donation increase over last year and a 47% increase in the number of gifts. To date, more than 8,000 families have donated to SHARE. Congratulations to all our volunteers who work hard to promote SHARE!

Alternative Giving Thank-you

Special thanks to all of the troops in Service Unit 649. The community started the Winter Break off with a bang, by submitting more than $900 in support of SHARE. Troops pooled together funds raised at holiday parties and decided to give back to the very organization that gives them a precious gift every Girl Scout year – the gift of friendships, leadership development, STEM education and confidence – that will carry them well into adulthood.

2010 Phone-a-Thon

Please consider attending the second phase of the 2010 SHARE Phone-a-thon being held February 10, 2010 at the Seton Service Center. Adult volunteers are needed to make calls to families and “Friends of Girls Scouting” to rally financial support. Girls are needed to make “thank-you” calls to current donors to thank them for their financial support. Don’t let the idea of making calls scare you away; there is always something you can do to help. Meet other GSCM volunteers who also want to make a difference with SHARE. These are not cold calls...we are calling our best constituents...friends and families of Girl Scouts. After dinner and a brief warm-up, volunteers will begin dialing for SHARE dollars.

To sign up, please email your name, service unit and troop to Niakia Cheese, Annual Fund Manager, at ncheese@gscm.org.

Ways Communities Can Support SHARE

- Use coin tubes to collect spare change (obtained through your Membership Specialist or the Annual Fund Manager, Niki Cheese).
- Hold a
 - Girl Scout Birthday Week Party
 - Troop Ice Cream Social
 - Community Fun Day or Carnival
 - Girl Scout Service Unit night at a restaurant hosted by a Girl Scout family, troop or community
- Include a SHARE presentation as part of a Troop picnic, Court of Awards, Bridging Ceremony, or other event when families are all together.
- Ask churches/synagogues/places of worship for a special offering or table in the lobby during Girl Scout Sunday Service.
- Collect SHARE donations from supportive members of congregations with a strong relationship to Girl Scouting.
- Mention SHARE year round in newsletters, meetings, etc... Give specific examples of the benefits of SHARE.
- Compare Girl Scout expenses to other extracurricular activities (dance, sports, music, etc).
- Remind families of the values and life skills Girl Scouting offers.
- Participate in council SHARE trainings and activities.
- Include SHARE in Troop activities (thinking day, holiday giving and spring festivals).
