relationships with a foundation of strong self-image/self-esteem, and respect and appreciate the outdoors/ecosystem and its resources.

GSCM offers the core Girl Scout program including earning skill-building badges while also offering a vibrant troop program delivered by nearly 7,000 adult volunteers, who are trained in the Girl Scout Leadership Experience. Girls are guided to complete impactful service-learning projects as well as achieve their Bronze, Silver and Gold Award. The Gold Award is the highest achievement a girl can earn and offers benefits such as access to college scholarships and higher ranking in the military. An integral part of the Girl Scout experience is camp. Typically GSCM offers resident camp at Camp Conowingo (Cecil County), overnight/day camp at Camp Whippoorwill and Camp Woodlands (Anne Arundel County), and day camp at its Program Center (Baltimore) and Camp Ilchester (Howard County), which includes a nature center.

However this year prevented, those programs from occurring due to the impact of the pandemic. In 2020, however, GSCM offered virtual day camp for 4 weeks, a series of camp in a box resources, as well as, a virtual robotics, cybersecurity, environmental stewardship, anti-bullying, incarcerated mothers through Girl Scout activities in the prison, and programs outside of the prison such as camping and college tours.

The Chair of the Board asks for several board members to volunteer to be part of a performance evaluation committee for the CEO. Usually three other board members participate along with the Chair. The committee reviews the CEO's performance against her personal performance goals (written) that had been established at the time of the prior year's evaluation and against the performance of the council against its annual plan of work. The CEO provides a written report of her accomplishments. This report is reviewed and discussed by the committee. The committee makes an initial evaluation of performance and drafts a written performance evaluation. The committee then meets with the CEO to further discuss her performance and provide her with the written performance appraisal. Any changes to the appraisal are documented in writing. The committee works with the compensation committee to determine the appropriate compensation increase for the CEO based on her performance, the organization's budget and industry standards. The compensation committee consists of three board members as well as the Chair. The board members may or may not be members of the performance evaluation committee. The compensation committee reviews information from Girl Scouts of the USA regarding compensation trends in Girl Scout councils nationwide, reports of the pay of other non-profit CEO's in the greater Baltimore area, information on non-profit pay nationwide from Guidestar and other organizations. The committee then discusses this information either in person or via conference call and documents its decision in writing. The compensation for other officers and key employees is determined by the CEO and her management team in accordance with salary guidelines that are reviewed on a periodic (usually every three years) basis by the finance committee of the Board of Directors. These salary guidelines for all staff positions are based on a review of compensation data from Girl Scouts of the USA for councils across the nation, information for salaries at other non-profits in the Baltimore area, and information from salary.com and similar resources for the Baltimore region.
